

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Halloran,

on Island 25 years

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Halloran, 51, a former Staten Islander, died Tuesday of cancer in a hospital in Miami Beach, Fla.

Born in Manhattan, Mrs. O'Halloran lived on Staten Island for 25 years and moved to Miami Beach, upon retirement last year. She was employed as a checker for the A & P and then Penn Fruit, Port Richmond.

She is survived by her husband, Edward Jr.; two sons, Edward 3rd, of Queens, and James, of Egbert Ave., West Brighton; four daughters. Mrs. Eileen Ochmann of Fairfield, Calif.; Mrs. Barbara Trapchak of Norristown, Pa., and Mrs. Karen Cooney and Mrs. Beatrice Biedrzycki, both of North Burgher Ave., West Brighton; a sister, Mrs. Marcella McGinley of Jensen Beach, Fla.; two brothers, Peter Keenan of the Bronx, and Daniel Keenan of Commack, L.I., and 14 grandchildren.

The funeral will be Saturday from the Richmond Funeral Home, Grant City, with a mass at 9 a.m. in St. Roch's R.C. Church, Port Richmond. Burial will be in Moravian Cemetery.